The Manitowoc Symphony's 2012/2013 season, Classical Flavors, contains a widely varied musical bill of fare, sure to please even the most discriminating palettes. Your musical feast starts with appetizing soloists including Milwaukee Symphony clarinetist William Helmers, internationally acclaimed piano virtuoso Eduardo Rojas and the Manitowoc return of the sparkling artistry of trumpeter John Urness. And Manitowoc's newest musical sensation, violinist Andrew Dunlap, will make his solo debut with the orchestra.

We will serve up the choicest cuts of symphonic literature from Bizet's witty and sparkling Symphony in C to the lush and exotic Antar Symphony of Rimsky-Korsakov. We continue the MSO's traversal of the Beethoven symphonies with the ever-popular Pastorale.

And did we mention dessert? Milhaud's Bull on the Roof, based on Brazilian dance hall tunes, is sure to set your toes tapping. A Rossini overture and a zany Stravinsky suite will add zest to your banquet of the finest in classical music. Subscribe today for a good table. And no need to tip the maitre'd!
